THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE C.V.RAMULU

W.P.No.2570 of 2007

ORAL ORDER:

The only grievance of the petitioner-management is that during the course of negotiations, both the management and respondent-Union have raised several demands. Insofar as the demands raised by the Union are concerned, they have been referred to Industrial Tribunal-cum-Labour Court, Visakhapatnam for adjudication, whereas the demands raised by the management were brushed aside.

In view of the fact that the demands raised by the petitioner-management and the Respondent-Union are inter-connected and arise out of common conciliation proceedings, it is always desirable that the demands raised by the management shall also be referred to the Labour Court for adjudication along with the demands raised by the Union.

Therefore, the appropriate Government is directed to refer the demands raised by the petitioner-management to the Industrial Tribunal-cum-Labour Court, Visakhapatnam for adjudication along with the demands raised by the Respondent-Union, within a period of one month from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.

The writ petition is accordingly disposed of. No order as to costs.
